Welcome & Church Life Pastor Kermit Netteburg

Call to Worship Pastor Terry Johnsson

Leader: We have heard Your voice, O Lord, in the plea for help from a friend in need, in the still silence of the falling snow, in our daily devotions.

All: You have called us by name; Rupa, Larry and Julie, Maria, Brenda, Theresa, Samuel, Van Slyke and Ruth, Rowena, Randolph, Peter, Dee and Leslie.

Leader: Lord, these are but a few of our names and we know You have called each of us this morning, to a place in Your kingdom, to a place at Your table.

All: Quicken our hearing, tune our hearts to the sound of Your voice so that each time You call our names, we will desire to respond immediately.

FOOTNOTES

Dr. Roy Branson, a member for nearly 30 years, is a professor of ethics and public policy at Columbia Union College (CUC). He leads an adult Sabbath School class and is the director of the Center for Law and Public Policy in Washington, DC.

Anthony Hackett, a sophomore majoring in religion at CUC, loves Jesus and feels completely indebted to God for the change he has felt in his life. Anthony praises God for this and his strongest desire is to be a servant of God and become the man that God wants him to be.

Norma Sahlin, a member for over 10 years, is one of today's presiding elders. In addition to serving as an elder, Norma serves on Sligo's administrative board. As chair of Sligo's membership committee, Norma says she is committed to encouraging faith and fellowship in our congregation.

LaToya Tolbert is a sophomore at CUC majoring in English and minoring in French. She has been studying voice for one year and is a gymnast on the CUC Acro-Airs Team. The Acro-Airs perform regularly during halftime at Wizard's games.

The Black Student Union Chorale, directed by Anwar Ottley, has been in existence for two years. Anwar, a junior at CUC, brings a great deal of energy which is deeply rooted in the knowledge of African - American music. Having grown up in a musical family, Anwar feels at home teaching with his mother at the Ottley School of Music in Hyattsville, MD.

Henry James Scriven was born January 24 to proud parents, Jonathan and Kerri Scriven.

They say that every cloud has a silver lining. We have certainly experienced the silver lining during the time of Paul's surgeries through the blessings of prayers and tokens of loving care and kindness of our Sligo Church family. We thank you with all our heart.

Paul and Heidi Copiz

Gladys Futcher, 96, wife of Dr. Cyril Futcher, mother, grandmother, and greatgrandmother to Sligo members Tony Futcher, and Heather Doherty and children, died January 26 in Fletcher, NC.

Adventist Health Study-2 Needs Sligo Support:

Don't miss your opportunity to be in one of the largest and most exciting health studies in the country! Our goal is to involve at least 25% of our eligible membership. Conducted by Loma Linda University's Public School of Health and financed by the National Institutes of Health (NIH), member participation in this study is a "gift" the Sligo family can have a part of giving to the next several generations to help prevent premature aging and disease. We will be promoting this study through February.

Women's Ministries Book Club meets the second Wednesday of each month in Fellowship Room B, 7 p.m.

February 9: Listening Hearts: Discerning Call in Community by Farnham, et al.

March 9: The Road from Coorain by Jill Ker Conway.

Attention Deaconesses (and those interested in becoming a deaconess): We are meeting for lunch after the second service, February 12, in the Youth Room. Please come and bring someone who might be interested in becoming a deaconess.

We would like to thank all those who came out to celebrate our one-year anniversary of New Community Fellowship. We were blessed with a crowd of over 850 people, followed by a fellowship dinner that fed over 400. May you keep this ministry in your prayers. We invite you to come out tonight for a special program featuring Columbia Union College's Black Student Union Chorale.

Grief Care: Are you experiencing the loss of a loved one, a life-threatening illness, or other painful event? Grief Care, a mutual support group for those journeying through major loss, is offered as a free community service by Washington Adventist Hospital.
