Leader: Lord, in this hour of worship give us relief from our worries about what we will eat or drink or what we will wear.

All: We want to seek first your righteousness and your kingdom.

Leader: Lord, release us from the tyranny of building bigger barns and buying wider screen televisions, so that we will be able to focus on you and your gifts to us this Sabbath.

All: We want to see you, Lord, in this hour, in this place, in the glory of your kingdom now.

Next Sabbath we celebrate those we have served in the armed forces of any country, defending freedom around the world. If you, or a close relative, have served, please share the person's name, country, and service division. Place a card in the offering plate today or call the church office with the information by Tuesday afternoon.
